LAWS.

At the Quarterly Meeting of the Committee of the Malta Garrison Library, held on Monday the 4th November 1822, it was resolved that, upon the occasion of printing a new Catalogue, a Revision of the existing Laws should be undertaken by a Select Committee; and, their Report having been presented and discussed at two subsequent General Meetings of the Subscribers, assembled on the 6th and 18th of January 1823, the following Laws were adopted for the future Regulation of the Institution.

I.

HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR is requested to consider himself Patron of the Malta Garrison Library.

II.

All Gentlemen holding Commissions or Appointments in His Majesty's Military and Naval Services, as likewise all Gentlemen holding situations under the Civil Government of these Islands, are eligible to become Subscribers to the Library.

III.

The Officers of the Institution are to be annually elected from the general body of Subscribers at the annual general Meeting, and are to consist of a President,

Librarian, (who will be allowed an Assistant with a Salary)

Treasurer, and Secretary.

A Committee is to be formed, composed of the above

Officers, together with five other Gentlemen who are to be elected at the same time from the general body of Subscribers.

Should any Corps or Department, consisting of not fewer than five Subscribers, be desirous of sending a Representative to the Committee, they are entitled to elect one, a written notification of the Gentleman whom they may appoint being transmitted to the Secretary three days previous to the meeting of any Committee; and the Representative so nominated shall be added to the original number.

In the event of any vacancy occurring among the five general Members, the Committee have the power of completing the number for the remaining period of the year.

To this Committee are entrusted full powers for the general management of the affairs of the Institution.

IV.

A general Meeting of the Subscribers is to be holden on the Monday after the first day of January in each year, and at such other times as the President or Committee shall think fit: or on a requisition, specifying the object, signed by seven annual Subscribers, and transmitted to the Secretary, who is forthwith to call a Meeting of the Committee for the purpose of fixing a day for the required general Meeting. The Committee is to meet on the first Monday in February, May, August, and November, as well as at all other times when it may be deemed necessary by any two Officers of the Institution. Five of the Members are competent to act, provided two are Officers of the Institution: all questions are to be decided by a plurality of voices; but, in case of an equality, the Chairman is to have the casting vote.

V.

The Treasurer's accounts for each year are to be submitted to the inspection of two Auditors appointed by the Committee at the November Meeting, and, after being audited, are to be laid before the annual general Meeting of Subscribers.

The Treasurer is not to pay any bill or account, unless approved by the Librarian or Secretary.

VI.

All proceedings of the Committee, as well as of every general Meeting, are to be regularly recorded in a book provided for that purpose; which is to be at all times open for the inspection of Subscribers.

VII.

The entrance-money for all Officers, and for all Gentlemen holding Civil Appointments under this Government, is respectively to be a sum equivalent to two days' pay; and their annual subscription is to be six dollars, payable in advance quarterly on the 1st January, 1st April, 1st July, and 1st October. It is to be understood that Officers holding any staff situation pay entrance-money as well on that as on their regimental commission. It is however optional for such Gentlemen, intending to become permanent Subscribers, either to pay the entrance in advance and the subscription at the established rate, or to pay them together by instalments of three quarters of a dollareach month; with the understanding that, when any Gentleman making such monthly payments shall have continued them uninterruptedly until amounting to a sum equal to the entrance and accumulated subscription, he shall be considered in every respect on the same footing as annual Subscribers; but this regulation is only to have application to Gentlemen whose pay or salary does not exceed three dollars a day. VIII.

Annual Subscribers may propose any Gentleman to be admitted as an Honorary Member, by inserting, eight days previously to a day of election, the Candidate's name in a book in the Library Room, kept for that purpose; such nomination being subject to a general ballot from the whole body of Subscribers, to be taken on the first Monday of the respective months of February, May, August and November; or on any other day of Meeting, whether general or of the Committee,—to commence and close at such time of the day as the Committee may judge expedient, due notice of the intended ballot being affixed to the door of the Library Room: a Member of the Committee is to be deputed to superintend the ballotting; and one black ball in seven is to exclude.

The subscription for such Honorary Members is fixed at one dollar a month, payable in advance; and Officers of the Army and Navy, occasionally residing in, or passing through Malta, are allowed to subscribe monthly on the same terms: but no Honorary Member is to become entitled to a vote or seat at any Meeting.

IX.

The Ladies of the families of Subscribers are allowed to subscribe separately at half the usual rate, without being required to pay any entrance fee. Widows and female relatives of Gentlemen entitled to become Subscribers are also permitted to subscribe on the same terms, subject to the approbation of the Committee.

X

No stranger, unless introduced by an annual Subscriber, is to be admitted into the rooms of the Institution; but the Committee, as they may deem advisable, have the power of offering the use of the Library to any individuals and their families who may be occasionally residing in, or passing through Malta.

XI.

No Subscriber shall have the power to transfer, in any way, his privileges in the Library: and any Member, whose quarterly payments shall be one month in arrear, shall be liable to exclusion by a vote of the Committee; but as some of the Subscribers are liable, from duty or otherwise, to be absent from the Island, any such Subscriber, on his return, will be entitled to the same privileges as if he had been constantly resident;—and if, at his departure, he should have paid his quarterly subscription in advance, he will be allowed to resume his right as a Subscriber, without further payment, from the day of his return until the ensuing day of general subscription.

XII.

The names of all Subscribers are to be entered in a register: and the names of those individuals who may make donations of money and books, or who, in any other way, may contribute to the benefit of the Institution, are to be recorded in a book, which is to be always open for inspection in the Library Rooms.

XIII.

Any Subscriber may propose the purchase of whatever books he pleases, by writing their titles &c. with his signature, in the book appropriated to that purpose: and the Committee, as the extent of the funds may allow, are to take all such propositions into consideration.

XIV.

The Library Rooms are to be open every day (Sundays, Christmas Day, and Good Friday excepted) during such hours as the Committee may appoint; when the Assistant Librarian is to be in attendance to give out and receive books, and to discharge the general duties of his situation: the newspaper-room, however, is to be kept open until nine o'clock every evening.

XV.

No magazine, review, or other periodical work, is to be taken out of the Library Rooms before the eighth day after its arrival.

XVI.

On the receipt of each series of newspapers, those brought by the preceding conveyance may be forwarded to Gozo, if applied for by a Subscriber there; provided any former series should have been duly returned: and all newspapers, after a sufficient time shall have elapsed for the perusal of them, are to be regularly filed, when they may be issued as books.—With these exceptions, no newspaper is to be taken out of the rooms.

XVII.

All books are to be issued in the order of their being applied for by the Subscribers, provided no delay should occur in sending for them: and if any book should be lost, torn, or defaced, while in the possession of a Subscriber, the Committee are to decide on a penalty proportionate to the damage, which penalty must be paid before any book can be issued to the Subscriber after such decision shall have been communicated to him.

XVIII.

The number of days to be allowed for the reading of each book, is to be marked on the inside of the cover by the Librarian, beyond which, (exclusive of the days of delivery and return,) it is not to be retained by any Subscriber, under the penalty of one tari a day during the first week, and two tari during each succeeding day. Should the book not be returned within three times the period originally allowed for its perusal, it is to be considered as lost, and the Subscriber is to be called upon to pay the full value of the whole work, together with the accumulated fines. Any expense necessarily occasioned in the levying of a fine is to be added to its amount; and no Subscriber shall be allowed to take a book out of the Library while a fine incurred by, and demanded of him, shall remain unpaid.

· XIX.

The time allowed for keeping books is extended one day in favor of Subscribers residing out of Valletta and Floriana; and, in consideration of the distance of Gozo, the Subscribers residing there have the privilege of taking out double the number of books, and of being allowed, at the discretion of the Librarian, a reasonable extension of time for their transmission.

XX.

No Subscriber, while in quarantine, can be allowed to have a book, without the express permission of the Librarian.

XXI.

The Librarian is to submit to the Committee, for their approbation, such regulations for the classifying and issuing of the books and for the interior management of the Library, as may from time to time appear desirable; and such Regulations, so approved, are to be transcribed and hung up for the general information of the Subscribers.

XXII.

The affairs of the Billiard Table shall be under the direction of a special Committee, consisting of not fewer than five Members, (three of whom shall be competent to act,) who shall be elected for the year at the annual general Meeting of Subscribers: and at every quarterly Meeting, a report, signed by at least two of that Committee, shall be presented, stating the receipts and disbursements during the preceding quarter. In the event of any vacancy occurring in the Billiard Committee, the general Committee have the power of completing the number for the remaining period of the year.

XXIII.

No Law can be amended or repealed, nor can any new one be carried into effect, without the sanction of a majority of Subscribers at a general Meeting to be called for the express purpose: and all propositions of such amendments, repeals, or new enactments, are to be signed by two or more Subscribers, or by order of the Committee, and suspended in a conspicuous place in the Library Rooms, during at least eight days previous to their discussion. As, however, cases of emergency may occur, the Committee have the authority to act accordingly, in conformity to the powers invested in them by the third Law, until such general Meeting can be conveniently assembled.

Contract to the second of the 14th January, 1828.

At a General Meeting of the Subscribers to the Malta Garríason Library (duly convened in the terms of the 23rd Law) the following amendment of the 3rd Law, and substitution of the 22nd Law were agreed to.—

Amendment of the 3rd Law.

The number of Gentlemen elected to the Committee from the general body of Subscribers to be increased from five to eight.

Substituted 22nd Law.

The Committee shall from time to time depute two or more of their Members to overlook the concerns of the Billiard Table;—and the name of any Gentleman, whose account of dues to the Table shall remain unpaid fifteen days from the end of each month, shall be put up in the Library and Billiard Room; and fifteen days from that period the Gentleman whose name may have been so published and whose account shall be still in arrear, shall be considered no longer a Member of the Library; nor shall he again be admitted except by consent of the Committee, and on paying a fine of ten shillings: provided always that the Secretary do advise such defaulter two days previous to the publication of his name.

J. T. H. LE MESURIER, Secretary.

Supplements to this Catalogue will be printed from time to time, as new Books are received; and will be distributed among the Subscribers, to enable them to insert the Titles of the Books, in the blank spaces left in the Catalogue, for that purpose, at the end of each Class.
